Cheng-Khee Chee, member of American Watercolor Society and former UMD professor, shares his work in the Tweed

Seven years later, he was promoted to an associate professor. He retired from his position at UMD to give his art career his full attention.

Cheng-Khee Chee has traveled the world, finding inspiration everywhere from Malaysia to his home in Duluth. His exhibit in the Tweed Museum of Art will showcase 40 pieces of his work, spanning 1974 to 2015.
