1.0 What's Happening Week ?

This week we meet the happiest people in the world . . . in Finland and Denmark—two SCANDINAVIAN EGALITARIAN CULTURES we'll see more of next week. And, in a way, we continue the focus on emigration and immigration . . .

- emigration
 - leaving one's home or homeland with the intent to settle elsewhere

- immigration
 - entering into a country or territory not of one's birth or citizenship for the purpose of taking up permanent residence or to secure temporary employment

As mentioned last week, worldwide questions of emigration and immigration are among key interests for governments and individuals. Opposition to particular immigrant groups, and immigration in general, has become a major issue in both local and world politics today, perhaps second only to the climate change crisis, COVID-19 and "globalization," as a driver of both informed and uninformed discourse, and cognizant and unapprised government policy and debate. And the on-going war in the Ukraine has severely amplified the problem.

Whether you are party to them or not, debates and diatribes over emigration and immigration, worldwide, have changed the political landscapes that many of us—maybe even most of us—were born into.

And both the disciplined debates and vitriolic protests over emigration and immigration will likely continue in all parts of the world in the foreseeable future.

So as last week we focus on one of the major global concerns, by having a look at real people in real places, viz. Spain, to try to understand some of the human dimensions of modern-day emigration and immigration.

What are emigrants and immigrants like? What do they do? What kind of lives do they live? What makes them laugh? Cry? Angry? Sad? Worried? And what do neighbors and governments do about them?

Also as mentioned last week, the free movement of people in the European Union (EU) is one of the four basic rights guaranteed by the EU charter. “There were over 310.7 million foreigners in EU and EFTA [European Free Trade Association] countries in 2015—8% of the total population. More than 45% of these foreigners were from an EU or EFTA state” (“Which European countries attract the most immigrants?” swissinfo.ch, 5 December 2017).

"What does it take to be happy? The Nordic countries seem to have it all figured out. Finland and Denmark have consistently topped the United Nations' most prestigious index, The World Happiness Report, in all six areas of life satisfaction: income, healthy life expectancy, social support, freedom, trust and generosity."

"Learn more about work-life balance secrets from the happiest countries in the world on CNBC Make It: <https://cnb.cx/37So3YY>"[!\[\]\(2bdfe261b986065ee0ac76460d6528c9_img.jpg\)](#).

"Each year, a group of happiness experts from around the globe rank 156 countries based on how “happy” citizens are, and they publish their findings in the World Happiness Report. Happiness might seem like an elusive concept to quantify, but there is a science to it."

"When researchers talk about “happiness,” they’re referring to “satisfaction with the way one’s life is going,” Jeff Sachs, co-creator of the World Happiness Report and a professor at Columbia University, tells CNBC Make It"

“It’s not primarily a measure of whether one laughed or smiled yesterday, but how one feels about the course of one’s life,” he says."

"Since the report began in 2012, Nordic countries—which include Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Finland and Iceland, plus the Faroe Islands, Greenland and Aland — consistently turn up at the top of the list. (The United States, on the other hand, typically lands somewhere around 18th or 19th place.)"

Your Informal Project Statement, or Project Proposal, is due by the end of Week 5, Sunday, 1 October 2023. Basically that’s a short informal summary personal statement of what you are interested in doing, how you think you might go about it, and what resources you are thinking about using. It can be as simple as the following:

“For my project I’m thinking about X, or Y, and these are the items I’m thinking about using [add short list]. This is why I’m interested in this/these project(s) [add your reason(s)]. . . .

It is an informal statement. A more formal statement will come later on (in Week 7, Sunday, 15 October 2023).
