“Sunday Memos”

The “Sunday Memos” are .pdf memos, like this one, that arrive by e-mail (usually, as you might expect, on Sunday).

And they are also featured each week in the “Recent Announcements” section at the top of your Canvas “Home Page” and in your “Announcements” folder (where Canvas keeps all of the past Announcements).

REM: Links on screenshots are not “hot” (active)

When the semester starts the links on the memos will be “hot” (active) and they will take you to more detailed information.

It’s fine for you to select the items that interest you most from each of the “Sunday Memos” (including this one).

You do not have to read them from beginning to end.

They start with links that take you directly to the part(s) that you might be interested in.

Your “Sunday Memos” look like this . . .

Anthropology of Food, Week 1, page 2

1.0 What’s Happening Week 1?

This week we’re off to have a look at food and culture around the world. It will be a savory adventure. This week we’ll also take a few minutes to get to know one another, and ourselves, and get to know how the course is set up and operates.

New at UMD this year . . .
Give it a try.

please do that as they contain useful and important information about the course that will make your life much easier.

These are not required reading, but it would be a good idea to read them anyway.

(That’s a lot of stuff to read, but the “stuff” lightens up after next week.)

These are the two things to focus on for Week 1.

The Canvas Module is the basic course management platform, the Sunday Memo contains more detailed information.

Canvas “Modules”

Access Your Canvas Modules here . . .

...and that will take you to your Modules folder . . .

If you like a clean-looking page . . .

click on the “Collapse All” button in the upper right-hand corner of your Modules folder to de-clutter your screen.

That will make your life much easier.
(Trust me.)

(Sorry; Canvas does not permit instructors to set the default to open with all modules closed.)

REM: Links on screenshots are not “hot” (active)

Your de-cluttered Canvas “Modules” folder will then look something like this . . . :

Then open the Module of the week that you want to look at . . . :

VOILA!

Your open Canvas Week’s Modules will look something like this . . .

(The first two weeks there is always a lot of information. After that, it’s not so bad.)

Canvas “Modules” vs. “Sunday Memos”

Both the Canvas Modules and the “Sunday Memos” . . . contain the basic information, but the “Sunday Memos” have more detail, some background, some studying suggestions, and, generally, some good images.

You will see.

Both the Canvas Modules and the “Sunday Memos” . . . follow the same basic outline.
