

Rural Pre-Med Summit Saturday, October 5, 2013

A Free Information Program for Prospective Medical Students at the University of Minnesota Medical School Duluth

Have you ever wondered . . .

- ✦ What do rural family medicine physicians really do?
- ✦ What are my chances of being admitted to medical school?
- ✦ What can I do to increase my chances of getting into medical school?
- ✦ What are the medical school prerequisites?
- ✦ What should my major be?
- ✦ How do I apply for admission to medical school?
- ✦ What is AMCAS and how much does it cost?
- ✦ What does the medical school curriculum look like?
- ✦ How hard is it to get through medical school?
- ✦ What is a typical day in medical school like?
- ✦ Will I see patients in my first two years of medical school?

For information, contact the Medical School Duluth Admissions Office at dmeded@d.umn.edu or (218) 726-8511. To register, visit www.d.umn.edu/medweb/Rural_Pre-Med_Summit.

The mission of the University of Minnesota Medical School–Duluth Campus is to be a leader in educating physicians dedicated to family medicine, to serve the health care needs of rural Minnesota and American Indian communities and to discover and disseminate knowledge through research.

The University of Minnesota is an equal opportunity educator and employer.